

No Rest Stand Set For Miners

No rest for 13 days is what coach Andy Cohen's U.T. El Paso Miner baseball team faced today when they begin a two week home stand.

Cohen's nine opened with University of Colorado today at Dudley Field after splitting a doubleheader with Texas Tech 3-0 and 2-1. The Miners won the first and dropped the second in 10 innings.

MARC BOMBARD collected his first win of the season against Tech Saturday in the opener by holding the Raider bats to three hits.

The Miners scored their three runs in back-to-back innings with one in the fourth and two in the fifth. Two of those runs crossed the plate via the RBI bat of Johnny Miller.

The Raiders were on the board first in the nightcap, but the Miners came back and tied the game where it stayed until the bottom of the 10th when the Raiders put the icer across the plate.

son and Eddie Leon in the third inning.

WRESTLING JUDGING ARENA

Mon., March 16 — 8:30 P.M.

Vs.

M
A
S
K

M
A
S
K

THE DESTROYER

Vs.

MR. WRESTLING

Loser will remove Mask!

TAG TEAM

Rufus R. Jones
& Ricky Romero

Vs.

Bull Ramos
& Apache Gringo

Jerry Kozak

Vs.

Norteno Pico

Eduardo Lynch

Vs.

Roy Kline

Reservations 533-8610