

'Cans for Cash' Is Beautify E.P. Slogan

"Cans for Cash," is the slogan of Andy Cohen, the new chairman of Beautify El Paso Assn.

Mr. Cohen, baseball coach at the University of Texas at El Paso, will be installed at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in El Paso Public Library.

OTHER OFFICERS of the group will serve through 1971.

Mr. Cohen is a member of Downtown Lions Club, former board member of the Touchdown Club, past Commander of American Legion Post No. 58, a member of Temple Mt. Sinai, the Jewish War Veterans, and was the first member to be named to El Paso Athletic Hall of Fame.

Mr. Cohen plans to push the "Cans for Cash" project, through which aluminum cans or other forms of pure aluminum will be accepted by the Dickshire Coors Co., at 10 cents a pound.

The purpose of the association is to promote beautification of the city.

Mrs. Joseph Walton is outgoing president.
