

In Old El Paso

FIFTY YEARS AGO

From the Herald of April 14, 1920

Following a meeting at which local railroad switchmen pledged 100 per cent loyalty to their employers in the present strike crisis, and following an opportunity given several agitators to explain their stand, several switchmen resigned. Railroad officials say no trouble is expected in El Paso.

"To avoid chances of contesting elections it would be well for the city and county to provide better voting booths," said City Councilman R. C. Sempl. "It might be well to purchase folding steel booths."

The Woman's Club has formulated a practical plan to pay off its indebtedness of over $14,000. Directors, after much deliberation, made a contract with the Glenn Broom Co. to pay the club 10 cents in cash for each "King" and "Queen" broom sold.

After 31 years of proprietorship, Kelly & Pollard today relinquished ownership of the drug store at 201 North Oregon street to F. A. Cordell of Coffeyville, Kans. Kelly & Pollard will devote all its time in the future to the wholesale drug business.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

From the Herald-Post of April 14, 1945

Our Texans have won three games to date in the Mexican National League and all three triumphs have been pitched by Marcos Valdez. If Manager

Andy Cohen can find another winning pitcher to help Valdez the club will soon leave the cellar niche.

The White House today made public the name of Chief Fire Controlman Thomas E. Bailew, El Paso, who served as one of the attendants for the late President Roosevelt in the funeral procession.

Dr. Pearl Ponsford of the College of Mines was elected parliamentarian of the Texas Division of the American Assn. meeting held yesterday at Meeting held yesterday at Baylor University at the organization's 11th biennial session.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Herald-Post of April 14, 1960

City Council today adopted a resolution calling for the construction of a 330-unit low-rent housing project for the aged to be financed with Federal funds.

Ronald E. McKeown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKeown of 8328 Sageland, has been chosen to play on the Naval Academy football team this year. Ronald was active in sports while attending Ysleta High School where he was appointed All Conference.

Northgate Shopping Center's first stores will open today. The center is owned by Northgate of El Paso Inc. and is situated at Dyer street and Diana drive.