

Miners Wrap It Up Against NM

Coach Andy Cohen and University of Texas at El Paso Miner baseball team put the wraps on the 1970 season Friday and Saturday at Albuquerque against the New Mexico Lobos.

Cohen, who has already had a better Western Athletic Conference season than last year, is hoping to get his Miner team near or at the .500 mark. The Miners are now 24-21.

THE LAST TIME the two met at Dudley Field, the Miners took a sweep from the Lobos and upset their hopes of gaining a WAC crown.

The Lobos still have an outside chance to sneak in but they'll need a sweep plus lots of help from Arizona who'll have to take two from Arizona State.

It seems far fetched unless the Lobos can hold down some of the Miner bats and get tuned to Cohen's lefthanded pitchers.

THE MINER coach has named Mark Bombard to start Friday and will come back with Harry Milner and Jim Greggerson Saturday.

New Mexico will counter with Jim Kremmel, Gary Jacobs and Dan Ketcherside.

Leading the Lobo bats are Larry Minarich at .386 and Bab Faford at .357.

Outfielder Bob Prokopowicz leads the Miner hitting and is around .460. Before the Arizona State series he was hitting .451 and was seventh in NCAA batting averages.
