

Hawaii Wins With Vets—

2 New Managers Take Helm in PCL Play

United Press International
There will be a couple of new managers at the helm of Pacific Coast League teams this week.

Philadelphia fired Bob Wellman as manager of Eugene and named Lou Kahn to replace him. Emerald general manager Hugh Luby said the Phils did not feel Wellman was getting the most out of the players he had at Eugene, which is currently 11 games back of Spokane in the PCL north.

THE OTHER switch was a happy one.

Hank Sauer will take over as pilot of Phoenix on Thursday after Charlie Fox was named to manage the parent San Francisco Giants.

Pitcher Bob Garibaldi has been running the team in the interim and last night the Giants did him proud as they exploded for five in the first and three in the fourth. Then they had to hang on for dear life as Portland rallied so that the Giants squeezed out the 8-6 win.

Steve Whitaker banged a three-run homer that turned out to be the decider.

HAWAII STAYED 7½ back of the Giants in the PCL South with a 8-3 win over Northern Division leader Spokane. Juan Pizzaro, 33, and Jim Coates, 37, a couple of veterans of the big time, combined to take the win.

Walt Hriniak and John Sipin collected three hits apiece to pace Salt Lake City over Tacoma 8-5.
