

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/798436844/>

Miss United Way Contest Tomorrow

The public is invited to attend the Miss United Way beauty contest at no charge, to be held at the Festival Theater tomorrow at 7:30 p.m., according to chairman Charlie Tupper.

Eleven beauties have entered the contest, according to Tupper, and include Sandy Stone, Terry Martin, Molly Welsh, Bonnie Stoepel, Carla Walicek, Lauren Bodenheimer, Mary Lou Garcia, Linda Ruiz, Christina Ramirez, Betti Flores and Gayle Calhoun.

Contestants will be judged by Marlin Haines, Kathryn Browne, Majorie Graham, John Conboye and Fred Witt. Jack Rye, emcee will introduce committee members Mrs. Milton Leech, D. B. Parker and Andy Cohen.

Ball Tickets Now on Sale

Tickets are now on sale for the Fireman's Ball, sponsored by El Paso Firefighters Assn. scheduled at the Coliseum Sept. 5 at 7:30 p.m.

The winner of the Miss Firefighter contest will be crowned at 8 p.m.

The Jim Petty Orchestra will play and feature the popular standard hits of the big band era, according to leader Jim Petty Sr.

The orchestra features arrangements giving Petty an opportunity to solo on both the clarinet and alto saxophone in his swinging jazz style.

Jim Petty Jr., is featured on the drums. Majoring in music at the North Texas State University in Denton, young Petty started his musical career at age four studying clarinet and saxophone under his father.

Jim Jr.

Bassett Center Presents: FREE—On The Mall

4500
PARKING SPACES

58 STORES &
SERVICES

The "Estudiantina de St. Anthony"

Friday, August 28—7 P.M.

Saturday, August 29 — 2 P.M.

ALSO:

FRANK GONZALES GOSPEL GROUP (ON THE MALL)

Saturday, August 29th — 3:30 p.m.

BASSETT—IN THE CENTER OF EVERYTHING—WITH EVERYTHING IN THE CENTER