

Grand Jury Probes NFL

CLEVELAND (UPI) — The National Football League will be investigated by a federal grand jury for possible anti-trust law violations.

It was learned the entire 26-team league would be involved in the inquiry, although Carl Stenhouse, regional director of the Justice Department, has refused comment.

The jury is to be convened here next month.

Frei No. 1 Again

By HOWARD APPELATE
EUGENE, Ore. (UPI) — His team has beaten UCLA, Southern California, Air Force and others, yet Frei is the top 10 ... or 20.

He has the best corps of college pass receivers in the ... With stars on the sidelines, he has brought his team to the endzone pitch needed to win when experts said it would lose.

He gives credit to his assistants and his players for any success ... and takes the blame for the losses.

AND FOR the second time in two weeks, Jerry Frei of Oregon is the United Press International College Football Coach of the Week.

"You gotta be kidding ... they don't impress me," Frei said when informed of the honor.

Two weeks ago Frei was named Coach of the Week after Oregon edged USC 14-13 in a downpour at Eugene to knock the Trojans out of a fifth straight trip to the Rose Bowl.

LAST Saturday Oregon came from behind on the passing of sophomore quarterback Dan Fouts and the receiving of split end Bob Newland and others to knock Air Force from the ranks of the unbeaten and untied, 4-0.

Fouts, who started the season behind injured Tom Blanchard, caught 28 of 41 passes for 396 yards and Newland caught 11 for two touchdowns and 14 yards.

Oregon won without star halfback Bobby Moore, who was suspended for a week for missing practice.

"Maybe," said Frei, after taking at this week's rankings which saw USC, UCLA and Air Force all in the top 20, "our people are being underrated. We have proven the point that we're back in the football world. We're not surprised when we win. Why should anyone else be?"

Air Force coach Ben Martin said of the game, "Air Force beat Oregon ought to play each other in a bowl game. We can guarantee the fans plenty of excitement."

SLEEPY NED is shown posing a typical Sleepy Ned victory. This was Sleepy Ned's fourth straight win at Sunland Park in the spring of 1961. It came on April 22, 1961, Louis.

Sleepy Ned Is Dead

By RAY SANCHEZ
Remember Sleepy Ned? Gee, I loved that horse. He was the champion of the underdog, the Robin Hood of the Southwest, the terror of jockeys — and as trustworthy as any hero Frank Merriwell thought up.

Racing, like other fields, has its snobs. They didn't like Sleepy Ned. They kept saying he wasn't bred well, that he didn't have any class — even that he was lucky.

Yet, from 1959 through 1961, when he was in action, Sleepy Ned was the best option in the Southwest. Purchased by Fritz Franzini for $1,000, Sleepy Ned won 24 races, earning over $60,000. He rose from the lowest claiming races to the highest stakes races.

His trademark was a sleepy disposition during the post parade, which changed into a furious burst of speed once the race started.

I saw him in incredible times, like whipping stakes stars by up to 10 lengths at 2 1/2 furlongs.

And although he was a sprinter, I saw him win at (believe it or not) a mile at Ruidoso Downs. He got out in paid $12 to win. I remember "cause I bet him."

BUT SLEEPY NED is no more. He was killed after being struck by an automobile recently.

Fritz Franzini reports Sleepy Ned, 13 years old, died at Bayfield, Colo., where he had been put in pasture. Sleepy Ned and three other horses somehow got out of their enclosure. They were struck and killed by a speeding motorist.

There have been some great horses through the years at Sunland Park.

The horse which wasn't bred well, had no class and was "lucky" will be mentioned with the best of them in years to come.

Stanford Pick by 6 1/2

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stanford, the nation's sixth ranked team, has been installed as a 6 1/2-point favorite to defeat the Air Force Academy next Saturday in the only game involving a team ranked among the top 10 in college football which the odds-makers expect to be close.

Hagan's Goal Not Met

HOUSTON (UPI) — Rice Coach Bo Hagan said certain goals set for the university's football program had not been met.

"I want to do so immediately for the best interest of the university as the administration can have maximum time to attend," Hagan said.

THE FOOTBALL team's three co-managers issued a joint statement saying the team would dedicate itself to winning its first three games of the season. The Owl won 2-0 on the year so far. They were 1-0 in the season opener and also upset California.

The Owls have dropped games this year to LSU, SMU, Texas and Texas Tech. Last Saturday they lost eighth-ranked Arkansas 14-3 at the half before getting bombed 34-14. The team's last games are against Texas A&M, TCU, and Baylor. The TCU game is the only home game left on the schedule.

Ali Does Not Believe In Violence

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Muhammad Ali, seeking to become again the undisputed heavyweight champion of the world, said he will not fight Argentine Oscar Bonavena Dec. 7.

Ali said Bonavena has a bad attitude and he will not fight him. He said he does not believe in violence, and he understands the frustrations of those who are in the ring.

THE FIGHTER said he plans to go into training for the Bonavena fight later this week in Miami after speaking at Peterborough State College.

UTEP End Spot Unsettled

By BOB INGRAM
The only position the U.T. El Paso Miners has unsettled for their football game against Arizona in the Sun Bowl Saturday night is tight end.

Bobby Dobbs has three men vying at this spot — Tom Allen, Dennis Mayfield and Pat O'Neill.

ALLEN HAS the job early in the season, was benched, regained the job, and is now fighting to keep it.

"I'm looking for somebody to step out and take over in this job," Bobby Dobbs said, as he saw one position, resolved in the game against Wyoming last Saturday.

At Kimball, one of Andy Cohen's prized outfielders on the Miner baseball team, took over the left corner back spot.

HE INTERCEPTED a pass and returned the ball for a touchdown.

Large, described the contest as his "assess match." He said Galt is a "downward, defensive tactics kept him from a large."

THE EVENING'S controversy began when local Freddie Rodriguez was awarded a second round TKO over Jesus Menchaca of Juarez. The fight was halted by club physician Dr. Raul Rivera after 2-1 of the second round after a live, live, fight.

An obvious butt by Rodriguez opened a serious cut over Menchaca's eye.

LATER, in an interview 'Boxing and Wrestling Commission.

Shed, Cager, Stoglin Pace Union Win

Union Furniture's amateur basketball team opened its 1970-71 season last night with a victory.

The Furnituremen, coached by coach Sam Kleinfeld, defeated Juarez Technical Institute 76-47 at Juarez Auditorium.

Neel Shod scored 21 points and Willie Cager 14 while Andy Stoglin had 10 rebounds.

For the losers, Jaime Catalanes scored 21 points.

Ellis Almost 'Blows' Fight Comeback

MIAMI (UPI) — Jimmy Ellis wanted to make a good impression last night in his first fight since being flattened by Joe Frazier Feb. 17, but he came close to blowing the whole comeback plan.

Ellis, former holder of the World Boxing Assn. version of the heavyweight title, finally found the range against battered Peruvian veteran Robert Davila and scored a TKO at 2:36 of the seventh round in their wild bout at Miami Beach Auditorium before 1,364 fans.

Davila had weathered Ellis' best head shots in the first three rounds and was coming on strong until a roundhouse right staggered him early in the seventh of a scheduled 10-round.
